

Texas Brain Injury Alliance

Presents:

The 34th Annual Symposium

Life After Brain Injury

Challenges and Triumphs

October 18, 2018

9:00-3:15

Lunch Provided

J.J. Pickle Research Campus, Commons

Building #137

10100 Burnet Road, Austin, TX 78758

Topics will highlight efficacy of functional treatment approaches, use of technology, outcomes, cognition, ethics, and the challenges of managing life after brain injury.

Featuring Cindy Ivanhoe, MD as keynote speaker.

Register online at texasbia.org or mail in registration to :

TXBIA, 9050 N. Capital of Texas Hwy, Bldg 3, Ste 130, Austin, TX 78759

Provide name, address, phone number, and type of registration.

100.00 for professionals/ 25.00 for survivors, caregivers, students

4.25 CEUs submitted for approval for PT, OT, SLP, SW, and CRC

Contact 512.910.7108 for more information

The Texas Brain Injury Alliance is committed to Improving lives through awareness, prevention, support, advocacy, research and community.

T E X A S

Brain Injury Alliance

The 34th Annual Symposium

Course Schedule

- 9:00 Welcome
- 9:30-10:30 Keynote Speaker: Cindy Ivanhoe, M.D.
Life after Brain Injury: Challenges and Trends We All Face
- 10:30-10:45 Break
- 10:45-11:30 A. Rene' Mills, CCC/SLP, CBIST and D'Anna Nowack, SLP-D, CBIS
Leading Apps in Brain Injury Rehab
B. Christine Medeiros, LPC, NCC, and Maire Hunt, CRC
Comprehensive Rehab Services: A Holistic Approach
- 11:30-11:45 Break
- 11:45-12:30 A. Walt Mercer, PhD
Behavioral and Cognitive Consequences of Severe TBI
B. Olivia Rains
Texas Technology Access Program
- 12:30-1:45 Awards Lunch and Exhibitors
- 1:45-2:30 A. Paul "Chip" Howe, M.A.
Legislative Advocacy Plan
B. Margaret Pfaff, PT, and Raquel Currah, PT, CBIS, RYT-200
Building Structure for Well-being After Brain Injury: A Guide for Therapists, Patients, and Caregivers
- 2:30-3:30 Ken Ramsey, M.Div, J.D.
The Ethics of Authority: A Relational Approach
- 3:30 Closing